

HR Special Interest Group

Thursday 3 December 2020

10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Tamar Function Centre

1 Windsor Drive, Riverside, Launceston

The venue is located between the Windsor Park Community Centre and the Football Ground

Agenda

10:00 am	Registrations and morning tea/coffee on arrival
10:15 am	Welcome and introductions
10:30 am	Christine Turnbull, Founder, People on Purpose Group Small Bites Big Topics: A leadership program designed for new and existing middle managers, supervisors and team leaders in local government.
11:15 am	Anne McCulloch, Director, Edge Legal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The difference between employees and contractors and the risks of getting that wrong. – Now that the borders are re-opening, what are the employer responsibilities regarding employee interstate travel?
12:00 pm	Natasha Cloak, Community Engagement Officer, SPEAK UP! Stay ChatTY The Community Presentation is an evidence-informed session focusing on increasing awareness about mental health and suicide, reducing stigma, and encouraging conversation and help-seeking.
12:45 pm	Lunch
1:15 pm	Ekaterina Skalidis, Principal, Dobson Mitchell Allport Mental Health in the workplace, how to conduct performance management.
2:00 pm	Robert Wallace, General Manager, Learning Knowing Achieving Topic: Approved to deliver local government qualifications in Tasmania, Rob will provide an overview of their courses, delivery methods and platform.
2:30 pm	Round Table – chaired by Julie Tolputt What's happening in your Council?
3:00 pm	Meeting close

Proudly supported by